He also is past president of the Illinois Association of Park Districts, and past president of the Granite City district.

City Has Not Yet Found Funds to Proceed

State Okays Planning Of Sewers, Treatment

By HARRY BARNES
Press-Record Staff Writer

The Illinois Environmental Protection Agency has approved the preliminary engineering report for construction of secondary sewage treatment facilities in Granite City, subject to one recommended change, city council members were informed in regular meeting Monday night.

Two representatives of M-W, Inc., the city's special engineering and planning firm for the sewage treatment project, informed the aldermen that the approval notice clears the way for development of detailed plans and secondary engineering. They suggested work begin immediately.

The council, however, in the absence of Mayor Donald Partney and four aldermen, refused to authorize the engineers to proceed with further planning phases although Alderman R.E. Robertson, serving as mayor pro-tem in Monday's session, said he could see no reason for further delay.

At one point during the discussion, Alderman Claude Green presented a motion that the engineers proceed with the secondary phase, which includes construction of interceptor lines to serve Venice, Nameoki and Chouteau townships. Construction of a community sewer line is planned as a separate project and is sponsored by Madison County.

The city expects to finance the project with a 50% federal grant, a 30% state grant and 20% of the revenue in fees for sewage treatment for the townships. Under present sewerage program, however, the city can receive no grants until it has initiated the construction work.

As a result, the city must find its own funds to get the program started. Mayor Partney has suggested the possibility of a $3 million bond issue.

The notice that preliminary plans have been approved by EPA was received from Ward L. Aker, acting manager of the permit section of the Division of Water Pollution Control. Aker said the approval was subject to a revision for a specific chlorine application to the stormwater flow in primary treatment.

The M-W engineers, Aaron A. Pichon and Ray C. Haller, said the required change will be made in the preliminary plans and in the final engineering plan documents.

Meanwhile, a petition signed by 20 members of the Long Lake Volunteer Fire Department requesting the three trustees be reappointed has been prepared. The petition stated, "It was the unanimous desire of the industry and intelligence of these persons that the property owners of the district were able to receive efficient and economic fire protection."

Harmonious Relationship. It continued: "The department is recognized by the city as one of the best fire fighting units in this part of Illinois. This was made possible by the harmonious relationship which these men created between the department and the fire protection district."

Fees Abolished. A letter from William W. Schooley, board attorney, stated an opinion that Whittell, acting as a trustee, was not authorized to collect fees and that applications for appointment will be accepted from anyone residing in the district.

Request Applications. Louis Whittell, township supervisor, suggested legal notices be published that vacancies exist and that applications for appointment will be accepted from anyone residing in the district.

Engineering work was ordered halted a month ago upon completion of the preliminary plans and reports by M-W when the council learned the secondary planning and engineering, along with inspections and engineering on the actual construction project, will cost the city an estimated $400,000. The amount is in addition to $102,000 paid by the city for the preliminary planning work.

Supervisor Whitsett Threatened

Twelve witnesses were heard yesterday by a grand jury in Edwardsville which is investigating alleged irregularities in Ponton Beach.

Among the witnesses heard were Tom Stalcott, president of the village board, and his wife, Sister Corneilia Hawkins, a nun who also serves as a dispatcher and juvenile officer for the village police department, testified for the second time before the jury yesterday. She had been one of four persons called to testify when the hearings opened Nov. 18.

Louis Whittell, Nameoki Township supervisor, who also testified Nov. 18, confirmed reports that he had been threatened Nov. 17. "A man called the township office and told me, 'if you say anything to the grand jury, you're dead!'"

There also were unconfirmed reports that several other witnesses had been threatened if they testified.

Russell "Junior" Bennett, captain of the village police department, said today that he has threats made to village residents.

Bennett added "In the three years I have been with the department, I have never heard of anyone being threatened if they testified."

DECKING THE STREETS With wreaths, tinsel and bells for the advent of Christmas was the task assigned to these sign company employees. Christmas decorations appeared over downtown streets Monday in preparation for the arrival of Santa Claus here Friday.

Christmas, and the official opening of the Christmas season here with the arrival of Santa Claus, will remain closed on Friday.

The jolly get will arrive here Friday morning and will remain in residence through Christmas. His arrival will be marked by a parade from McKinley Bridge in Venice through downtown streets to the shopping centers on Nameoki Road.

St. Nick will arrive at the bridge at 9 a.m. and his parade will proceed to Third Street and Madison Avenue, arriving about 9:35 a.m., where Santa again will pause to greet the children.

Shopping Center Stops. The route continues along Madison Avenue to Nameoki Road and to the Bellemore Village and Nameoki Village Shopping Centers where a crowd of children and parents will greet the jolly fellow at 10:30 a.m. The next stop will be at the American Village Shopping Center with Santa's arrival set for 10:45 a.m.

Following the parade, Santa will leave for Civic Park in downtown Granite City where his cabin has been readied for his arrival. There after a good meal of milk and cookies, St. Nick will greet children from noon to 8 p.m.

Next came roast loin of pork, creamed mashed potatoes, apple sauce, French peas, asparagus tips, sweet olives, dill pickles, celery hearts and lettuce salad. The dessert course was not to be outdone, offering the soldier a choice of coconut and walnut layer cake, mixed nuts and candies, oranges, apples and bananas and finally cigars and cigarettes in the cocoa and coffee to finish off.

It was quite a meal, the local world war I veteran recalled.

Gassed in France. Mr. Waggoner joined the Army in early 1917 and eventually became bugler of Company L, 119th Infantry. He was sent overseas to France in April 1918, where he was wounded and gassed. He received a disability pension for injuries resulting from the gassing episode.

The ex-serviceman retired in 1963 from the Granite City Army Installation after being employed there 17 years.

The Waggoner family are Mrs. Bryan's wife, Mayme, three sons, Warrant Officer Eugene and Veterans of World War I, pilot, now stationed at Camp Weatherford, who served a tour of duty in Vietnam and was cited for heroism, and William Kenneth and Bryan Waggoner Jr., both Kansas City residents and veterans of World War I.

The couple also has a daughter, Mrs. Ray (Marlene) Mercer of Granite City, who is employed in the commissary at the local Army installation, and 12 grandchildren.

Mr. Waggoner asked his wife if she would care to use the old menu as a guideline for tomorrow's "Thanksgiving."

"She said that the daughter has already prepared a menu, but she thought she would better," Mr. Waggoner said.

Ogilvie to Run: 'Able to Make Tough Decisions'

Saying he has the toughness he feels is needed to guide Illinois in 1972-76, Governor Richard B. Ogilvie on Tuesday "threw his hat into the ring" for a second term.

Despite polls which indicate he would lose to the Democratic lieutenant governor, Paul Simon of this county, the Republican chief executive made it clear he wants to make the race next year.

The two both won in 1968, but in 1972 each party's gubernatorial lieutenant governor nominees will run as a team with a single square on the ballot.

Simon is considered the almost-certain choice of the Democratic party to run for governor. Ogilvie, by his announcement yesterday, is regarded as virtually assuring the GOP gubernatorial nomination for himself.

The primary election will take place in March 1972, with the general election following that November.

The text of Gov. Ogilvie's statement follows: "In August, a committee of distinguished citizens from every section of Illinois urged the integrity and courage of the GOP gubernatorial nomination for himself."

"I appreciate this expression of confidence from people of every persuasion. I also appreciate the support offered by leaders of the Republican party throughout Illinois."

"I am grateful for having received this honor. I have had the privilege of serving in major public office for the past nine years, and before that, in the armed forces of this country and as a member of the United States Department of Justice."

"In these assignments, I have been deeply conscious of the responsibility which attaches to public office."

"For the officeholder who expects to maintain high standards than we demand of others. Even his most private affairs are subject to public scrutiny. He must avoid any appearance of impropriety."

"But much more is required. Integrity in public office cannot be measured only by dollar honesty or pious statements."

"The officeholder who ducks a tough decision, who flinches at a tough decision, who fails to stand up for the full integrity and honesty required to discharge his duty to the public trust, that failure is a far greater betrayal of the public trust than the misfeasance of the man who abuses his office for personal gain."

"It would be easy to conclude that the test of the quality of a man's character is to speak up on the popular issues and evade the hard ones. But that also is dishonest."

"As governor of Illinois, I have faced the tough decisions. I have made them on the basis of what was right—rather than what was popular."

Jobs Are Vital for Many Reasons Besides Income--Illinois Governor

ALL THE FISH YOU CAN EAT FRIDAY, $1.29 AT GRANTS

By GOVERNOR
RICHARD B. OGILVIE

One vital part of the state's welfare program is to help provide jobs for persons who can work. The need for jobs is a far more serious matter than merely providing income for the unemployed. I don't mean to minimize the immediate importance of income from a productive job—

But a long-range view suggests that unless we are successful in replacing welfare with jobs, we shall be doing the greatest possible damage to ourselves and to persons on welfare. Neither the victims of our welfare mess nor this nation can afford any expansion of a new non-working class. The cost cannot be measured simply in terms of dollars spent for their support. It must be measured also in terms of the human costs to the disadvantaged poor who slip farther and farther away from the mainstream of American life. The importance of the work ethic in our society cannot be overemphasized. It underlies the achievements of Americans of all times and of all religions and races. There are sound reasons for this, and they deserve thoughtful consideration by anyone concerned about the future of this nation. Work is important and productive in itself, but it is far more than merely productive. For most people, it is a principal source of education in that it instills useful values, teaches skills, and provides a practical extension of formal education. For those to whom formal education has little meaning, it is virtually the only means of a second chance. In a democratic society, working offers all of us the most important way of raising our status in life—as well as our incomes. It is also vital in reducing class barriers because shared work is probably the greatest single source of personal contact between persons of different backgrounds. If we fail to prevent the growth of a non-working class of persons who could work if they were trained to take available jobs, we will be adding to the already serious social isolation of that non-working class.

We cannot afford to split this nation further in this way. We cannot afford a course which further pits working, tax-paying members of society against non-working, non-tax-paying persons on welfare who are employable.

And the cost of our failure will be reckoned not only in dollars or in the wasted lives of persons now on welfare. It will be measured also in the lives of succeeding generations. The best proof of this is the existence of second-generation and even third-generation welfare families today.

Somehow, we must break that cycle. Illinois, in several important ways, has taken strong steps in this direction. One which offers us long-range hope is the broad expansion of the state's child care program.

While the immediate gain will be to free welfare mothers to work or take training, the greatest gain will be made among children. For them, our aim is to quicken the interest and response of children at the earliest possible age.

Sporting Goods Store To Open Here Friday

Fleishman's Sporting Goods store, 1908 Delmar Ave., will open Friday with a complete line of sporting goods, athletic equipment and uniforms on display. Among the items that will be sold are skates, shoes, trophies and equipment for baseball, football, basketball, soccer and tennis. Famous brand name equipment will be featured in all departments. The store will operate under the slogan, "Fleishman's-The Pro's Shop."

The tremendous and measurable success of such an effort can be seen in the national response to such stimuli as "Sesame Street," the innovative program for children on educational television.

Another step involves the strong commitment Illinois has been able to secure from federal emergency employment funds. Six areas of Illinois have been selected as targets of the $22 million Illinois program approved by federal officials.

The ultimate success of this effort will be determined by how many of the chronically unemployed can be assisted to become productively and regularly engaged in private industry. The dollar costs of welfare today are straining state governments to the breaking point. The social costs, in the long run, may be far more severe unless we can turn the slogan, "No welfare, no welfare," into a reality for more of our people.

Call Bids on Roof Repairs At Two Madison Schools

Bids on major roof repairs at Dunbar and Blair Schools have been called by the Madison Board of Education. The two roofs are leaking badly. Fred Riddle, school superintendent, has told board members. He said the buildings may be damaged permanently if the situation is not corrected immediately. He estimated the repairs at $2,000 for each building.

A plan for expanding the alley behind Dunbar School prepared by Sheppard, Morgan & Schwaab engineering firm, of Granite City, was presented to the board for consideration. The plan calls for closing the children's playground area behind the school to provide room for trash trucks to turn around, or obtaining a plot of ground on the other side of the alley by condemnation to extend the alley. Action has been withheld pending a study by legal counsel.

Principal Reclassified The school board also has relieved Mrs. Willie Watts from duties as assistant principal of Dunbar School because of a heavier load of classes resulting from recent reorganization of teachers at Dunbar School and Madison Junior High School. Her extra salary of $800 per year was discontinued. Five persons have been hired by the board including three cooks, a teacher's aide and a maintenance helper. Hired as a full-time cook at Madison Junior High School was Mrs. Ann Gresco. Mrs. Deliah Simmons was hired as a part-time cook at Harris School and Mrs. Louisa Gunn was hired for the same position at Louis Baer School.

Robert Fouts was appointed as maintenance helper to assist Eldon Rhodes, head of maintenance, with building repairs. A resignation by Mrs. Mary Macke, a cook at the school, was accepted.

The board has been informed that the state has approved a $4,387 Title II grant for the district. A contract was approved with Mrs. Lolita Jenkins for special education transportation at 10-cents per mile during school hours and 20-cents per hour at other times.

GC School Board to Ask 'Specifics' in Permit Ban

The Granite City Board of Education has instructed school administrators and its attorney to confer with trustees of the East Side Levee District in efforts to obtain a building permit to construct a high school at Maryville Road and Route 203.

Levee trustees denied a permit last week on the basis that it could add to a serious drainage problem at Doreby Slough.

At a special meeting of the school board Monday night, the board decided to invite L. M. Pickin, chief of the bureau of engineers of the Illinois Department of Public Works and Buildings, to visit the building site and to forward his opinion to the Levee District.

Pickin informed the school board the previous Monday night that the construction would have no effect on Doreby Slough since it is located in a neighboring watershed which drains easterly toward the Long Lake area.

Henry Gabriel, architect on the project, told the board that the Levee District's notice of denial contained no specific reason for the action. He is to inspect drainage data on the area.

May Get Injunction William "Mike" Ebersoldt, Levee Board president, said earlier this week that if the district fails to discontinue work on the project until drainage plans are revised, an injunction will be sought to force the school district to comply with permit requirements.

School Supt. B. J. Davis complained that, "We are in the middle. I can't see where it can have an effect on the Doreby area. . . . The water would have to run up hill."

Levee trustees said they would change their decision if it is pointed out that drainage would not add to current flood problems.

Meanwhile, fill work is continuing at the construction site, Davis said.

Pinapple Price Hike By National Approved

The Price Commission on Tuesday approved a 7.2% price increase on tin mill products of the Granite City Steel Co.

Such products make up 25% of National Steel's sales, the commission said, adding that the increase is justified by higher labor and material costs.

Although the hike is larger than the 2.5% guideline, the commission said it does not set a precedent. Bethlehem Steel was permitted a 7.6% price boost, Bethlehem said. Its increase will take effect Nov. 29 and National Steel did not immediately set an effective date.

Residences

passage and therefore lost. The council then placed the ordinance on first reading.

When the measure was presented for final passage Monday night by Aldermen Roy Paulsen, chairman of the Ordinance Committee, Whittier objected that no engineering report had been made.

He said he had visited the subdivision and checked drainage outlets. He said he would oppose the ordinance until an engineering check is made to determine if the drainage water has a place to go after leaving the subdivision.

"I want it understood that there is nothing wrong with the drainage installations in the subdivision," Whittier said. I went out there personally and checked, and found that the installations are adequate.

"However, I understand that after leaving the subdivision, the drainage outlet line—a 46-inch line—goes about 150 feet and then deadends. This means that the line fills up, the water backs up into other smaller lines and drains in part into a levee district ditch. This happens during average rainfall. It seems to me there would be real flooding in an exceptionally heavy rain."

Paulsen withdrew his motion for adoption of the ordinance after council members agreed to the suggestion the installations be checked by an engineer, followed by Whittier's motion, which was approved, that the mayor hire an engineer for the job.

Robert Stevens, city clerk, after the meeting, said Mayor Partney has talked with an engineer concerning the plans for Lexington subdivision. A report on that project is expected to be made in the council's Dec. 6 meeting.

MORE ABOUT Ogilvie

than what might have seemed popular or expedient.

"I intend to continue that course as long as I am governor of this state."

"On Dec. 6, 1967, I said that 'Illinois needs a governor who will be in fact as well as in name—the chief executive officer of this state,' because the governor must have the political independence to carry out the programs in which he believes."

"I pledged to be that kind of governor—to attack our most urgent problems with programs of substance rather than rhetoric to see these fundamental goals:

"1. To provide adequately for better education.

"2. To furnish good care for the mentally ill and other helpless charges of the state.

"3. To dedicate state resources to equal education and job opportunity for all citizens.

"4. To lead in the fight against pollution.

"5. To maintain law and order in our communities.

"6. To improve state parks and recreational facilities.

"7. To build and maintain safe roads in every part of the state.

"8. To understand and deal with the problems of the cities and local governments.

"I am proud of the record of this administration on these, and other, important issues. I am proud of the many people who have helped write it. And it is to that record that I seek reelection as governor."

"Today, I have authorized the circulation of petitions to place my name on the ballot for the Republican nomination."

"I am well aware that the campaign ahead will be difficult. It will call for more resolution and courage. It will test our belief in what we have done, and our dedication to what we hope to do."

"It will test our ability to inform people."

"But I have faith in their judgment—when they have weighed the evidence and considered their decision."

"Upon this record, I shall rest my case," Ogilvie concluded.

"Lack of control of drugs, vice and gambling were among several charges voiced during a meeting Nov. 9 in the home of Wood River Township Supervisor Roger J. Elbie. A state attorney's office investigation began following that meeting."

Stalcott said after the grand jury session, "From what I have heard thus far, I don't think any of the charges are true." Stalcott added, "I think the whole thing is purely politics and it's a dirty trick."

Others who testified at yesterday's session included Carl Hackney, village treasurer; Mrs. Dorothy Simpson, clerk; Quint Towery, a volunteer village patrolman; Jack Wettergreen, manager of an air products company; Les Caton, president of Caton Enterprises which operates several car washes; Chuck Barnley, operator of Chuck's Tavern in Ponton Beach; Harry Ellsworth, father of Michael Ellsworth, who had testified Nov. 18; a former police dispatcher, Bud Marlette; and former village policeman, Kenneth White and Robert Littlejohn.

Cage Campaigns to Open, Warriors to Host Griffin

High school basketball fans should be getting their score cards out as the 1971-72 cage season is about to open.

The Granite City Warriors are the first to kick off the season with an opening tilt at 8:15 p.m. Saturday in the local gym against Springfield Griffin.

The Madison Trojans will travel to Triad for their first game on Tuesday, and on the same night the Venice Red Devils will be at home to Columbia at 8:15 p.m.

Junior varsity games are played at 6:15 p.m. before every varsity tilt.

The Warriors will be trying to fill a hole left by Mike Deruniz (1971 graduate) when they take the floor Saturday. They have four, of last season's starting five, returning—Joe Wallace, Terry Ripka, Chuck Kraus, and Bob Wiggins.

In addition, Kevin Dyka, who started in about half the varsity battles, will be back, along with Rick Prehn a returning letterman.

Backing up the Warrior returning lettermen are Dan Bix-

Fans will be keeping an eye on Hilda who could set the all time top scoring record in GCHS history this season. He now has a total of 801 varsity points.

Gary Simpson, during the 1968-69 season tallied 699 points for a career total of 1,534. Rich Williams is cage coach at Coolidge Junior High, holds the GCHS record with 1,604 points while playing guard until he graduated in 1961.

It appears that the Trojans will have the roughest season, of all three schools, due to several unfortunate circumstances that took out all, but two, of their first 10 starters.

Venice is hurting with the loss of two of their starting five players who accounted for an average of 45 points per game last year. Cedric Gardner averaged 25 points and Doug Johnson 20.

Soccer Warriors Down Priory 6-1, Season Closes Today

With only one game left to play, the Granite City High School soccer squad remains undefeated in 10 games with 18 victories and a tie.

The streak was extended Monday as Priory High School of St. Louis County fell 6-1 to the powerful Warrior offense. The sole remaining foe (St. John Kennedy High School of Manchester, Mo., one of the strongest soccer squads in the St. Louis area. The Warriors will travel to Manchester at 4 p.m. today for their final battle.

At Priory, the Warriors were in top form, taking 42 shot opportunities while allowing the Priory offense only five.

Carl Dake was the first to score, taking a cross from Jim Forrester and booting it by the goalie three minutes into the game. Seven minutes later Jack Dillard booted a corner kick which rebounded off an opponent. He took advantage of an opening for a point.

With one minute remaining in the first half, Dake scored on a pass from Randy Worthen to lead 3-0 at the whistle.

The Warriors' fourth point came on a cross from Jerry Duncan to Bill Bronbauer three minutes into the final period.

At that point Coach John Sellmeyer began to utilize his sophomores and juniors who had been warming a very cold bench. Paul Jaungels earned the Warrior's fifth point on a pass from Chris Harizal at 20 minutes into the period, and four minutes later Harizal intercepted a pass,

Cougar Cagers to Make Debut on Monday Night

Coach Jim Dudley's Southern Illinois - Southwestern University basketball Cougars will make their 1971-72 season debut Monday night in the annual SIU-SW Varsity-JV game at Edwardsville High.

In a curtain raiser starting at 7 p.m., a team made up of staffers of the SIU-SW student daily newspaper, the Alestele, will play the male members of the physical education faculty.

The Cougars will open their regular season Saturday, Dec. 4, on the road playing the University of Missouri at Rolla.

Only five regulars are back from Dudley's 15-11 team of last season: 6-8 Gene Bonds, 6-4 Jerry Bloomer, 6-2 Dave James, 6-3 Denny Thorneburg and 6-4 Roy Withoff.

Thorneburg, sharp-shooting guard, is one of the nation's best free-throw marksmen, but will not play as he has just returned to drills after knee surgery about a month ago.

Lost by graduation were the Cougars' two top scorers, John "Champ" Summers of Madison and Rich Essington of Venice.

Making their debuts will be four stand-out junior college transfers: Jerry Blaudow, 6-2 native of Arthur, Ill., who played one season at Lake Land Junior College; Sam Holmes, disbribled it in an earned an unassisted goal.

With one minute remaining in the game Priory retallied as sophomore Warrior Goalie Mike Demaree deflected a shot which fell directly in front of an offensive lineman who scored on a hard-kicked shot.

6-5, a former resident of Natchez, Miss., now from Houston, Tex., and a graduate of Northeast Community College, Powell, Wyo.; Tony Johnson, from Chicago's Farragut High and a player for two seasons on the powerful Hutchinson, Kans., Junior College team; and Carbondale native, James "Hank" Mackey, who starred for Logan Junior College, Murphysboro, for two seasons.

Sure to be the center of much attention will be 6-8 Steve Hutchison, a sophomore from Hillsboro, Ill., who is the sole survivor of SIU's - SW frosh squad of last season. Hutch broke into the varsity line-up in the Cougars' final three games last year.

Lost for the rest of the season will be Harold Thomas, another promising junior (Robert Morris) college transfer, who had leg surgery last week.

A teammate of Thomas at Robert Morris Junior College, Frank Ramsey won't be eligible until Jan. 4, but is being counted on to give the Cougars a lift during the final half of the season. Ramsey is from Sandoval, Ill.

For the JV's, it will be the first appearance in Cougar Cardinal Red and White for freshmen Terry Fraley, Ashland, Ky.; Terry Hanner, Charleston; Louie Richardson, Cahokia; Tom Rysz, Riverside - Brookfield, North Riverside, Ill.; and Mike Van Hecke, East Moline High, East Moline.

Two sophomores, Darryl Grinnitt, who starred in his prep days for Lincoln High, East St. Louis, and Bill Land, DeKalb, Ill., will probably play for the JV's, but still are given a chance to make the varsity.

Another standout freshman, Thurman "Patch" Perren, Highland, Ind., is still recovering from a leg injury and won't see action Monday.

HAPPY TRAVELERS. Caught in a pose usually associated with a famous "jet-set couple," Mr. and Mrs. Michael Toundas, 2801 Pontoon Road, shop in the marketplace at Marmaris, Turkey, where they stopped briefly while cruising among the Greek Islands in the Mediterranean. Despite a language barrier, the Toundas located relatives in the small Greek Village of Asopia.

GC Couple Finds Relatives in Greece

By VALERIE EVENDEN
Press-Record Staff Writer

The ancient Chinese proverb—"One picture is worth more than ten thousand words"—proved an accurate adage to a Granite City couple who traced relatives in a small Greek village with the aid of long forgotten photographs taken in childhood.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Toundas, 1801 Pontoon Road, returned home from a 13-day tour of Greece and Turkey, and a Mediterranean cruise in the Greek Islands, full of their experiences in locating members of their two families.

Both the Toundas' are of Greek parentage. Mrs. Toundas is the former Helen H. Amilo of Madison, whose father, the late Theodore H. Amilo, came here from Greece 55 years ago.

Not until He'lon and Mike Toundas were married did they learn their respective families came from the same small village in Greece.

The couple started their trip by plane from New York to Rome and then to Athens.

Despite the fact that Mrs. Toundas is unable to speak Greek and her husband has a limited knowledge of the language, mostly understanding phrases learned during his youth and speaking only a modest number of words, they decided to rent a car in Athens and journey about 100 miles north to Asopia, a tiny village in the mountains.

In Asopia, the couple met a young boy who understood a few words of English and recognized the name "Toundas" when pronounced with the Greek inflection.

The youth escorted the local travelers to a home in the village where a woman through gestures said her name also was "Toundas" and sent the boy to find others in the village of the same name.

The language barrier proved only a minor obstacle when the woman produced two photographs sent by relatives in America some years ago.

One picture taken at a family gathering here caused great excitement as Mrs. Toundas was easily recognizable, though a very young girl at the time the photo was made.

Among the relatives in Asopia, the Granite Cityans found four uncles—two brothers of the late Theodore H. Amilo and two brothers of Mrs. Toundas' father. "Everyone was very excited and hated to see us leave," Mrs. Toundas said. "Mike found it more Greek than he thought—and the photographs our families sent to relatives in past years helped," she added.

In addition to touring the ancient ruins in Greece and locating their relatives, the Toundas cruised the Greek Islands in the Mediterranean on the MTS Jupiter, visiting Santorini, Rhodes, Delphi and Crete.

Another unique experience was in store for them on Santorini, an island where motor transportation is unknown.

The couple traveled by donkey along a twisting mountain trail to the village of Asopia.

2,500 feet above sea level. Neither previously had ridden a donkey.

Before the cruise ended, the Toundas' also visited the port city of Marmaris in Turkey.

A past president of the Granite City Kiwanis Club, Toundas is an agent for State Farm Insurance Co.

Sacred Heart Winter Carnival Set

MUSIC RECITAL GIVEN BY 11 LOCAL STUDENTS

Final preparations were made at Sacred Heart School for a "Winter Carnival," scheduled to take place from 5 to 9 p.m. Friday, Dec. 3, at the school.

Mrs. Georgia Miller, carnival chairman, said that mothers of Sacred Heart pupils will be asked to donate cakes. Other volunteers, including fathers, are needed to work in the kitchen and dining areas and assist at the carnival fish fry. Volunteers are asked to contact Ron McKee, at 877-1065.

Assisting Mrs. Miller in arranging the carnival are Jerry Walker, Parent-Teacher Organization president and Mrs. Pat McKee, secretary. The event will feature a fish fry, games and booths displaying Christmas articles for sale.

Students in the sixth, seventh and eighth grades are selling tickets in advance for the fish fry, priced at 50 cents each. Patrons also may purchase tickets at the door and carry out orders will be available.

Mrs. Miller said.

She noted that prizes will be awarded the top ticket salesman at each grade level and the classroom with the highest sales total.

Others attending the planning meeting were Mesdames Maggie Williamson, Rosie McGowan, Carol Squires, Pat York, Sharon Chevik, Janet DeGonia, Sylvia Woods, Bernie Howell, Elaine Selanski, Toni Mueller and Delores Del Monte and Ron McKee, Jim Papp, Louise Koznick, Stanley Kwiatkowski, Richard Loyet and Tony Lapinski.

Parties Honor Departing Airmen

Three local young men started basic training this week at Lackland Air Force Base, Tex., as members of the Missouri Air National Guard.

Departing earlier this week for Texas with a contingent of Missouri residents were Ronald L. Howard, son of Mrs. Merl (Ann) Howard, 2320 Cardinal Ave.; Donald W. Robertson, son of Mrs. B. C. (Arline) Robertson, 2108 Pontoon Road; and Robert W. Peacher, husband of the former Miss Melody Kee and son of Mr. and Mrs. William Favier, 65 Deborah Court.

The trio will complete six weeks of basic instruction at the Texas air base then return to Robertson Air National Guard Field-Lambert, St. Louis, for an additional four months training.

Three servicemen are graduates of Granite City High School.

Several events marking their departure, including early Thanksgiving Day dinners, were hosted by the individual families last week and during the weekend.

Peacher, a former student at STU-SW, was honored at a family dinner party at his home attended by his wife, parents, his grandmother, Mrs. Lisa Felton;

Robertson, Mrs. Lisa Felton; and Howard, Mrs. Lisa Felton.

Channel Nine Series to Begin This Evening On the 'Understanding of Human Sexuality'

"Sons and Daughters: Toward an Understanding of Human Sexuality," a television series designed to help parents accept the responsibilities of sex education in the home, will be aired at 9 p.m. Wednesdays, beginning today, on Kete-TV, Channel 9.

Enrollments in the series are now being accepted by member-supported Channel 9. Through a special offer from the station, new Channel 9 members may enroll in the series for free with a tax-deductible $15 personal or $25 family membership contribution.

Enrollment in "Sons and Daughters" includes an illustrated discussion guide. Membership contributions and requests for enrollment should be sent to Kete-TV, Channel 9, 6996 Millbrook, St. Louis, Mo. 63130.

The five award-winning programs in the "Sons and Daughters" series attempt to stimulate dialogue on many areas of human sexuality.

Rather than using facts and statistics, the programs dramatize the differing points of view of the younger and older generations by speaking directly to teenagers and their parents.

The first program in the series, "What Life Is All About," tries to put sex in its place by suggesting that it is an important part of life, but not what life is all about.

"Miracle" (Dec. 1) examines, explains and discusses the pattern of human growth from conception to adulthood.

"Who Do You Think You Are?" (Dec. 8), the third program, tries to answer this question — one that is basic to anyone making a decision about sexual behavior.

Walking the tightrope of sex — a line between monetary passion and responsible love — will be the topic of the fourth program, "The Tightrope" (Dec. 15).

The final program "The Decision is Yours" (Dec. 22), shows doctors and teenagers bridging the generation gap during a "teen-town" meeting on sexuality.

The oldest reason in the world for buying a new one.

Meet Jim Freim, age 25. And his automobile, age 24. Now there's nothing unusual about a nice human being being 25. But you have to admit it's a bit unusual when a car, even a Volkswagen, is still running around on the ripe old age of 24. But, you see, in this age of "Now, Now, Wow" automobiles, we spend little time making our little car look better. (Obviously.)

But we do spend a great deal of time making it work better. Each and every one of the 5,115 parts in the VW has been improved and improved again since Jim's car made its first journey back in 1949. We, of course, mentioned this to him and suggested that maybe after 24 years, it was time he traded his old one in for a new one. "Don't call me, I'll call you," he said.

5 Shemwells in Military Service; Three Complete Training Together

Four grandsons and a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Shemwell, 3036 Namecki Drive, are serving their country in the U.S. Army. The five servicemen's addresses are listed in today's "Yule Mail Call."

Among the five, two of the youths are brothers. One is a local resident and the remaining four formerly lived in Granite City and attended local schools. Three volunteered for military service on the same date—Sept. 9, 1971.

Private First Class Charles (Duane) Shemwell, 19, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shemwell of Rural Route Two, Box 794. He completed basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., Nov. 12, and since has been assigned to Fort Hauchuca in Arizona, where he is taking eight weeks of instruction at the Radar Engineering School.

A 1970 graduate of Granite City High School, Charles was employed at Brunswick Tri-Mor Bowl prior to enlisting in the U. S. Army on Sept. 9.

James in Vietnam
Specialist Four James E. Shemwell, 20, and Private First Class Phillip (Mike) Shemwell, 17, are the sons of CMI and

PFC. ALAN SHEMWEEL

PFC. PHILLIP SHEMWEEL

PFC. RICHARD SHEMWEEL

SP/4 JAMES SHEMWEEL

PFC. CHARLES SHEMWEEL

Mrs. Everett Dean Shemwell of Winona, Mo., formerly of the Quad-Cities.

The only one of the five boys currently serving overseas, James is stationed in Vietnam with the 92nd Engineer Battalion as a heavy equipment operator. He entered the Army on Feb. 1, 1970.

His younger brother, Phillip, finished basic and advanced training at Fort Leonard Wood, and recently was assigned to Fort Lewis, Wash. Both James and Phillip attended Granite City schools. Their father is a member of the U.S. Seabees.

Private First Class Richard Shemwell, 17, is the son of Mrs. Mardis Shemwell of Festus, Mo., and the late Mr. Shemwell, both of whom are former residents.

He also was graduated Nov. 12 from basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, and presently is at the Missouri installation completing eight weeks Advanced Individual Training.

GCHS Students

Before volunteering for military service on Sept. 9, Richard was a student at Granite City High School.

Private First Class Alan (Randy) Shemwell, son of the Rev. and Mrs. George Edward Shemwell, 447 Diane St., Columbia, Ill., formerly of Granite City, is the third member of the Shemwell family to enlist in the Army Sept. 9 and to complete basic training at Fort Leonard Wood on Nov. 12.

Randy, 18, was graduated this year from Columbia High School. He also attended the local high school prior to the family moving to Columbia.

Randy and Charles Duane joined the service together on the "buddy plan" only to find upon arriving at Fort Leonard Wood, a third Shemwell cousin—Richard.

Assigned Together

The trio was assigned to the same platoon and barracks and remained together throughout basic training.

Randy also remains at Fort Leonard Wood, where he is completing eight weeks of training with a combat engineering division.

A service minded family, Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Shemwell had three sons who served with distinction in the Korean Conflict and re-enlisted in the Seabees in the Vietnam War; and Wilton, a U.S. Marine in the Korean War.

At various times, Mr. Shemwell also had four brothers and a nephew in the U.S. Army and another brother in the Navy. One brother, Sgt. Elmer Shemwell of Granite City, was declared missing in action in the Korean War. Two deceased brothers, Clifton, served in World War II and Elmer, in the Korean War. Charlie Joe Shemwell and James Eldridge Shemwell were in the Navy and Army, respectively, in the Korean War.

Over-Counter Sale of State Auto Licenses Here Dec. 1

Over-the-counter sale of 1972 motor vehicle license plates for vehicles licensed on a calendar-year basis will begin Wednesday, Dec. 1, at two Secretary of State's office outlets in Springfield, three motor vehicle facilities in Chicago and at 115 banks throughout the state, Secretary of State John W. Lewis announced yesterday.

The participating banks include the First Granite City National Bank and Granite City Trust and Savings Bank. That date is also the first one on which the 1972 plates may legally be displayed on vehicles, Secretary Lewis said. The number of banks participating in the over-the-counter sale service this year is an increase of 24 over last year's total, Lewis said.

Banks will accept only renewal applications for passenger cars, and the applications must be accompanied by the 1971 identification cards or, if the cards have been lost, the certificates of title. At their discretion, the banks may choose to charge an additional fee, not to exceed $1, for the service to offset the cost of a $6,800 validating machine each bank had to purchase. The banks will also set their own hours.

The Secretary of State's office outlets, in addition to passenger car renewal applications, will process all other types of applications, including original registrations, transfers and certificates of title, Lewis said.

At all locations, banks and Secretary of State's office outlets, applicants will be given assistance in filling out applications, their applications will be validated and the plates issued.

In Springfield, the locations and hours of the Secretary of State's outlets are: Centennial building, 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Mondays through Fridays; and Ninth Street and South Grand Avenue, 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Mondays through Fridays.

Two GC Men Arrested Following Burglaries

Henry E. Murphy, 19, of Rural Route One, and Jimmie Castile, 25, of 2118 Missouri Ave., were arrested during the weekend by an East Alton patrolman following burglaries reported in Madison, Jersey and Pike Counties.

Their auto, driven by Murphy, was stopped because of an improper muffler. Police said they found a console television set, two tape recorders, two movie cameras, a still camera, several old coins, two watches and a pair of gloves.

Murphy was charged with possession of stolen property less than $150, theft of more than $150, possession of stolen property of more than $150, improper display of license, no valid registration, failure to present his driver's license, the muffler violation and illegal transportation of liquor. Jersey County added charges of theft of more than $150 and burglary.

Castile, who said he had been picked up as a hitchhiker, was charged with possession of stolen property of more than $150 by East Alton police and with theft of more than $150 and burglary by Jersey County authorities. He was held for Madison police.

East Alton police said Murphy has served one year on the state prison farm at Vandalia on a charge of criminal trespass to a motor vehicle, and Castile served two years at Menard state prison on a charge of forging a fraudulent prescription.

MARRIED IN NOVEMBER. Mrs. Billy Walter Cathey, the former Miss Elizabeth Ann McMas- ters, who was married in an evening ceremony at Suburban Baptist Church. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William McMas- ters, 2339 Emerit Ave.

Miss McMas- ters Is Wed At Suburban Baptist

Altar bouquets of autumn flowers and lighted tapers in branched candelabra, created the scene for the wedding Nov. 20 at Suburban Baptist Church of Miss Elizabeth Ann McMas- ters and Billy Walter Cathey. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. William McMas- ters, 2339 Emerit Ave., and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cathey of Dover, Tenn. Before the ceremony, Miss Donna Cockrell sang several selections accompanied at the organ by Wayne Fisher. The Rev. Wendell Garrison performed the double ring service at 6 o'clock. Escorted down the white carpeted aisle and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a long white velvet gown fashioned with a fitted bodice and long puffed sleeves trimmed at the cuffs with a heavy Alencon lace. The lace was repeated at the neckline to form a stand-up collar and enhanced the Empire waist. A full length Mantilla-style veil of bridal illusion, edged with matching Alencon lace, was held in place with ornate combs. She carried a colonial bouquet of white 'mums encircled with red roses. Attending the bride were Miss Donna Means, Miss Kathy Petrovich and Miss Becky Coker. They were groomed alike in ruby red velvet dresses. Each carried a long stemmed white 'mum and a red rose tied with red velvet ribbons. Little Miss Janne Modica was flower girl and Donnie Cathey, a cousin of the groom, was ringbearer. She wore a frock similar to the bride's gown and carried a wicker basket filled with rose petals. Groomsmen were Laura Beatrice Naber and Rod Allen Harris. The groom chose his cousin, Joe Cathey, as his best man. Eddie Cathey, a brother, and Ronnie Boring, another cousin, were groomsmen. Ushers who seated the guests were Herb Milton and David Melton. A reception followed the ceremony in the church fellowship hall. Miss Karen Fisher attended the guest book. The former Miss McMas- ters is a graduate of Granite City High School. Mr. Cathey was graduated from Cumberland City High School and completed three years service with the U. S. Army. He is presently employed at American Sheet and Strip Steel Co. Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Kate Cathey, mother of the groom, Mrs. Pearl Leuthgamm of New Jersey, Price McMas- ters and Mr. and Mrs. William Smith from Pennsylvania, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Comstock of New York, Mr. and Mrs. James Jenkins and Mrs. Thomas McMas- ters, all of Wisconsin.

Church Unification Leader To Address Church Groups

One of the most influential churchmen in the world today, Dr. Paul A. Crow Jr., general secretary of the Consultation on Church Union (COCU), will be in Granite City Monday to address a gathering of representatives of 17 churches in the Quad-City area.

COCU is a group composed of nine denominations with a total of 25.5 million members seeking to establish one unified church, the Church of Christ United.

Dr. Crow is a nationally-known figure and has appeared on numerous national telecasts including the NBC Today Show. He has addressed church conventions of nearly every major denomination and has traveled to the Vatican to confer with the Pope on church matters.

His visit here was arranged by Dr. L. Jim Anthis, pastor of Central Christian Church (Disciples of Christ). "I am positive that COCU is the most significant movement within the church in the 20th century and we should welcome Dr. Crow's visit as one of the most important events in our community," Dr. Anthis said.

Dr. Crow will arrive here from New York, N.Y., Monday afternoon to address church leaders from throughout the Quad-City area. A program is scheduled in the sanctuary of Central Christian Church, starting with contemporary music from 7:30 p.m.

DR. PAUL CROW JR.

At 7:45 p.m., Dr. Crow will speak in "Where We Are and Where We Are Going in a Uniting Church." A reception in his honor is scheduled at 8:45 p.m. in the church's Terrace Room. Refreshments will be served by women from the 17 local churches participating. During the reception Dr. Crow will answer questions concerning the COCU movement.

The idea of uniting the Protestant churches began in a sermon in San Francisco in 1960, and by 1961 the wheels began to turn. In that year the Methodist Church and the United Church of Christ joined COCU, and in the following year the Episcopal, Presbyterian, and Lutheran churches joined.

In 1968 the African Methodist Episcopal Church became a member of COCU and the following year the Presbyterian Church in the United States and the African Methodist Episcopal Church joined.

The Christian Methodist Episcopal Church joined in 1967 and that year the Methodist and ELB churches merged, leaving the present nine denominations. Local churches participating in the program will include Namooki United Methodist, Redwood United Methodist, Trinity United Methodist, Dewey Avenue United Methodist, the First United Methodist in Venice and Greater Bethel A.M.E. Church.

St. John United Church of Christ, St. Peter Evangelical United Church of Christ, Mitchell United Methodist, Namooki United Presbyterian, First United Presbyterian, First United Presbyterian in Madison, Central Christian (Disciples of Christ), and St. Bartholomew's Episcopal.

The churches represent more than one-half of all church members in the area. The public is welcome to attend Dr. Crow's talk and the reception which will follow.

GSI Strike in Fifth Day; No Meetings Set

A United Steelworkers strike at the Castings Division of General Steel Industries moved into its fifth day today with approximately 1,100 hourly employees of the local plant on strike observing picket lines which were established Monday.

A strike headquarters has been established by Local 1025 of the United Steelworkers at 1344 State St. The office is manned 24 hours a day, serving the picket lines at the north and main gates to the General Steel plant, providing firewood, coffee and food to the pickets.

Company officials and George Spiroff, local 1022 president, said yesterday that no further contract talks have been scheduled. Both parties said they had been in contact with Gilbert Karmenberger, a representative of the U. S. Mediation and Conciliation Service at St. Louis, who sat in on previous contract talks.

All work at the GSI plant was halted when Steelworkers walked off their jobs at midnight Friday when the contract expired. Boiler-makers and other non-supervisory employees were sent home a short time later.

Approximately 800 steelworkers are involved in the strike and approximately 200 boiler-makers, machinists and pattern-makers are honoring the picket lines.

3 Brothers of Vietnam Casualty in Yule Mail

Three brothers of a Granite City soldier who was killed four years ago this week in fighting for Hill 975 at Dak To, South Vietnam, are listed in today's "Yule Mail Call."

The addresses of five other servicemen, all cousins, also are included with a related item appearing elsewhere in issue.

Relatives and friends of Quad-City military personnel are invited to submit their names and addresses to the Press-Record's pre-Christmas service.

Addresses are published in each edition of the newspaper with readers asked to clip out the lists adding the names to their own Christmas mailing lists.

Those contributing a serviceman or woman's name are asked to write the information on a postal card, letter or slip of paper and mail or bring the item to the Press-Record office, 1615 Delmar Ave.

The addresses of three Hinkle brothers appear in today's "Yule Mail Call."

The servicemen — Sergeant Iolyn L. Hinkle, Private First Class Charles D. Hinkle and Private Danny E. Hinkle — are the brothers of Private First Class William C. Hinkle, 20, who was one of three Quad-Cityans killed in action the week of Nov. 20, 1967. All were paratroopers in the Army's 2nd Battalion of the 503rd Infantry 173rd Airborne Brigade.

The winter paratroopers killed at Dak To were Sergeant Michael Adams and Private First Class Richard Kimball.

Sgt. Iolyn Hinkle, 22, presently is serving with the 11th Combat Aviation Battalion in South Vietnam. It is his second tour of duty in the war zone.

His younger brothers, Charles, 19, is stationed with the 1st Cavalry at Fort Hood, Tex., and Danny, 18, is based with a training brigade at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

Next Year's State Budget May Top $6 Billion Mark

By RAY SERATI
Copley News Service

Springfield—The Bureau of Budget, headed by John Wilbur McCarter Jr., has started the long involved process of reviewing proposed spending programs for the next fiscal year.

Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie will have to present a comprehensive budget to the General Assembly next March. At that time Ogilvie will detail the state's spending program that starts with the fiscal year to begin on July 1. The budget is expected to top the $6 billion mark. During this current fiscal year the budget has hit $5.8 billion.

As in the past, the budget will have three spending pillars—public welfare, education and highways.

What the Bureau of the Budget (BOB) is doing now, is to review each governmental agency's proposed spending programs. This of course also includes a look at just how many persons each agency has employed.

One of the big problems currently facing the BOB was to give a close look at just what the state has been taking in by way of taxes during the past few months and also project as to what will be coming in during the future months.

Must Be Accurate

Now that the state is on an annual budget basis this figuring has to be very accurate. If it isn't it could mean that the opposition party might have a lot of ammunition in the General Assembly, in the budgeting process one of the unwritten laws is to keep as much information as possible away from the minority party.

By not giving them the needed information, the minority party has to "dig" into the budget to see just what the spending programs entail. With little information the party that happens to be on the outside doesn't have a lot to "shoot" at the party that happens to be on the inside doesn't have a lot to "shoot" at the party which is in power.

McCarters already has projected somewhat of a deficit when the current fiscal year expires. When appearing before the Illinois Budgetary Commission McCarters indicated that a shortage could occur. He indicated the shortage could be in the neighborhood of $40 million.

Meanwhile, Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie has vowed to have a balanced budget. He has said he does not look with favor on deficit spending.

What the Bureau of the Budget (BOB) is doing now, is to review each governmental agency's proposed spending programs. This of course also includes a look at just how many persons each agency has employed.

County Demos Endorse Simon for Governor

Walter Simmons, Venice, Democratic chairman of Madison County, has formally announced his support of Lt. Gov. Paul Simon for Governor in 1972.

Simmons and 86 other Democratic chairmen of the state's 103 counties have confirmed with letters of endorsement their support of Simon's gubernatorial candidacy.

Simon, 42, manager of the Simon campaign, said Simon "has gained more official pre-slating endorsements than any Democratic candidate in Illinois history."

"These endorsements by Democratic county chairmen—coupled with the favorable results of every known poll at the grass roots level—clearly shows that Paul Simon is our party's best and strongest candidate for governor in 1972."

Car Stolen in Madison

A beige 1971 car, owned by Shirley R. Nasalroad, 1099 Third Street in Madison, police were told Monday.

Prairie Farms Occupying Old City Street Garage

The Aro-Dressel Foods Division of Prairie Farms Dairy, Inc., Niedringhaus and Benton avenues, is occupying the former Granite City garage building on 18th Street as a plant supplies warehouse.

Painting and repair work at the facility is nearly complete and some supplies have been moved into the building for storage, according to William Guthrie, general manager of the local plant.

The building was used by the city as a trade-in in September to the A. H. Seebold Construction Co. in the purchase of a city street department garage at 2301 Adams Street with the stipulation the former garage be sold to the dairy company for needed expansion.

Prairie Farms purchased the building and adjacent alley area for $4,000, thus averting an overcrowding situation which had threatened to force company curtailment of operations here.

Since the acquisition of the garage, Prairie Farms has purchased a tract of land adjacent to the plant which formerly was used by Bi-State Transit Co. for school buses.

Additional expansion of the company into the Granite City Industrial Center, 1100 Niedringhaus Ave., space formerly occupied by the National Enamel Stamping Co. (Nesco) also has been made.

A large drive-in supply operation which presently is grossing approximately $3 million per year, is occupying the Industrial Center, Guthrie said.

He said the overcrowding has been relieved. "We have enough growing room now for the next few years," he said.

Guthrie said plans are being formulated to construct a large freezer next year on the former Bi-State property.

Parents for Hearing Impaired Hear State School Instructors

Special guest speakers at a meeting of the Southwest Regional Parents Group for hearing impaired children included Mrs. Phyllis Harper, Larry Brick and Bob Anderson, all of the Illinois School for the deaf at Jacksonville.

Brick, a deaf teacher of the deaf, served as moderator for the panel. Mrs. Harper, who is a parent-pupil tutor at the school, is herself the mother of an 18-year-old deaf son who attends classes at Jacksonville.

She also served as an educational consultant for the Alexander Graham Bell Association for the Deaf. She spoke of her experiences both as a parent of a deaf child, and as an educator in the oral method.

Bob Anderson, vocational supervisor at the Illinois School for the Deaf, also is first vice-president of the Illinois Association of the Deaf, and treasurer of the Illinois Teachers of the Hearing Impaired. He stressed the importance of "total communication" and its role in the development of the deaf child, and said that in his opinion the movement forward in the 150-year-old education of the deaf is just now beginning.

Brick, president of Local 919, Illinois Federation of Teachers, and a member of many national and state associations, discussed his background from his first days at school at age 4½ until his graduation from the Catholic University in Washington, D. C., where he received his MA in psychology. A question and answer period followed the panel discussion.

Steve Gargac, president, conducted the business meeting, and plans were made to hold the annual Christmas party on Dec. 15 at Lake School in Granite City.

ite City. Mrs. Sharon Taylor and Mrs. James Wilson will serve as co-chairman.

Announcement was made that a fully equipped fish tank has been donated to the class at Lake School by the Daughters of Isabel of Granite City. A report was made on the collection of used mercury batteries.

Mrs. Leon Hudson announced that she and her husband will begin "sign" classes in January. The class is tentatively set for the YMCA, and will be held weekly for two hours, during the 15-week course. Additional information will be announced at the December meeting.

Former Gang Boss to Speak at Rallies

A two-night rally with a basic appeal to young people, scheduled to take place tonight and Thursday at West Junior High School in Alton, will spotlight as guest speaker—Nicky Cruz, a former hardened gang leader in New York who was featured in the book, "The Cross and the Switchblade."

Several outstanding citizens from the greater Alton area are in charge of the special program which is being supported by the area churches, according to the Rev. Dan Albrecht, minister of youth and music at the First Assembly of God Church here.

Attendance at the rallies is not confined to only youth, the Rev. Albrecht said, although he noted the holiday appearance here by Cruz is designed to permit youngsters to attend the program while on holiday from school.

Capacity audiences are expected at this evening's and tomorrow's programs. Both will start in the West Junior High auditorium at 7:30 p.m.

Transformation Told. "Nicky Cruz has a story that deserves to be heard by every one in this generation. It is a true story of how violence, fear, hatred and despair were transformed into peace, courage, love and hope," the Rev. James C. Kofahl, pastor of Edwards Street Assembly of God in Alton, said today.

The full story of Nicky Cruz has been told in the religious bestseller, "The Cross and the Switchblade," by David Wilkerson, whose compassion and concern for teenage dope addicts, prostitutes and gang members in New York has attracted national attention.

Cruz, as featured in the book, was a hardened gang leader of the notorious Mau Mau's, considered to be the most dangerous large gang in New York City. The utter boredom, frustration and hopelessness of an economically and spiritually impoverished existence in the sprawling slums drove Nicky to the protection and eventually the leadership of the Mau Mau gang.

NICKY CRUZ
Rally Speaker

The Rev. Kofahl noted that the fundamental premise of New York gangs is violence, destruction, compulsion and fear, all of which are used to assure the cooperation and safety of gang members.

It is a communion of fear and desperation, and Nicky Cruz became a leader by virtue of his boldness and ability to meet violence with greater violence. While still in his teens he was guilty, though not convicted, of 16 brutal stabbings.

The real story that Cruz has to tell, however, is the story of encounter and change—a change wrought by the transforming experience of a personal encounter with "God's redemptive love in Christ," the minister said. It is remarkably told in his newly-published book, "Run, Baby, Run."

Nicky's purpose is to tell the dynamic, explosive story of how teenagers involved in dope addiction, male and female prostitution and gangland violence are being helped today.

The Rev. Kofahl said the state of mind which has led many metropolitan youth to a self-destructive behavior "that scars, deforms and dehumanizes the whole personality is not limited to the giant urban centers with their unique problems. In less intensified forms it is reflected among the younger generation of every level of American society."

"What Nicky has to say, therefore, is relevant to all of us, not only because 'No Man Is An Island Entire of Itself,' but is 'Involved in Mankind,' as John Donne put it. "Also because not one of us is untouched by the spiritual problems so starkly dramatized in cities like New York and Los Angeles," the minister said.

Working with the Rev. Kofahl in arranging the rallies are the Rev. Ron Callahan, pastor of the Wood River Assembly of God; Father Frank Corbitt of St. Peter and Paul Church; and the Rev. Carl Cook from North Alton General Baptist Church, among other area ministers and clergymen.

American Heritage Topic of DAR

Each member of the Drusilla Andrews D.A.R. Chapter brought an article owned and used by their ancestors and gave a brief history of its origin and use as part of the program on "Our American Heritage" at a meeting of the local chapter held during the weekend in the home of Miss Nelle Hart, 2806 Iowa St.

The program was under the direction of Mrs. Janet Wilson. Items displayed included ironstone china, family records, napkin rings, jewelry, a dress, quilt top, antique buttons, vases, books, door knob, a coverlet and a piece of deerskin, a portion of which had been used for shoe laces.

Mrs. Mildred Whyers, regent, opened with the pledge of allegiance and Mrs. Leona Tate, chaplain, led the group in the Lord's Prayer.

During the business session, plans were discussed for the annual tea, to be held Sunday, Feb. 26, when a "Good Citizenship Award" will be presented to a qualified high school student.

Three new members, Mrs. Margaret Bell, Mrs. Helen Gantcheff and Mrs. Barbara Williams, were welcomed into the organization. In addition to 16 members and the new members, a guest, Mrs. Davis, mother of Mr. Doris Bloomquist, attended.

The December meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Thelma Molique, 29 Hilltop Drive, East St. Louis.

The Lydia Circle of Nameoki United Methodist Church completed plans for a Christmas party Dec. 16 with Mrs. Luan Briner, 3041 Ash Ave., at a meeting held in the home of Mrs. Lucille Russell, 1726 Bremen Ave.

Mrs. Mary Bailey opened the meeting with prayer. Eleven members attended.

Mrs. Virgie Daniels, chairman, presided. She read Scripture verses and gave a talk, entitled "I Give Thanks."

Devotions were presented by Mrs. Pauline Mahon, who used the topic "A Secret of Happiness." She also read an article, "Exit Graciously."

A luncheon was served by the hostesses: to Mesdames Effie Vrenick, Marian Whittaker, Marie Long, Viola Thornberry, Lucille Webb, Violet Miller, Vivian Guika and these named.

Honorary 'Grandma' is Surprised

A group of young people residing in the immediate neighborhood of Mrs. Dena Kamp-schneider, 2238 State St., honored her at a surprise birthday party during the weekend.

The affair was arranged by Miss Carol Gray who, with several other youngsters, ranging in age from 10 to 16 years, gathered at the Kamp-schneider home bringing with them a birthday cake, ice cream and a gift.

Affectionately known as "Grandma Kamp-schneider" to many children in the 2200 block of State Street, although unrelated to any of the group, the guest of honor was complimented in similar fashion two years ago by several of the same young people.

While most of the boys departed to play football after the refreshments were served and a birthday song was sung, Mrs. Kamp-schneider said the girls stayed to visit and viewed photographs of themselves taken when small children. Several demonstrated for the honored guest, recreational activities in which they are presently engaged at school, she added.

MR. AND MRS. EDWARD D. GROTE, who were married Nov. 13 at the Second Baptist Church. The bride is the former Miss Sheryl Law, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Eaton, 2905 Oregon Ave.

Miss Sheryl Ann Law, Edward D. Grote Wed

Miss Sheryl Ann Law and Edward Dale Grote were united in marriage in a candlelight ceremony Nov. 13 at the Second Baptist Church. The Rev. B. E. Dutton performed the double ring evening service.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Eaton, 2905 Oregon Ave. The groom is a son of Lester Grote, 2420 Illinois Ave.

Given in marriage by her grandfather, Robert Whitaker, the bride was attired in a formal length gown of white net over satin, fashioned with an Empire bodice featuring a square neckline, scalloped with Chantilly lace, and long tapered sleeves. Tiny seed pearl motifs created a floral design on the dress.

A mantilla headpiece secured a net veil bordered with Chantilly lace which fell gently to the cathedral length train. She carried a cascade bouquet of white chrysanthemums and baby breath.

Mrs. Kathy Ridenour, matron of honor, and Miss Patricia Law, sister of the bride, bridesmaid, were identical full length dresses designed with purple velvet bodices, square necklines and long puff sleeves of orchid chiffon. The necklines were trimmed with embroidered flowers in shades of orchid and purple.

The attendants wore large purple velvet bows on their hair, attached to nose tip veils and they carried bouquets of orchid and purple mums.

The groom chose Gary Ridenour as best man and Mike Stavelay as groomsman. Randy Miller and Dale Kester seated the guests.

Mrs. Eaton, mother of the bride, selected a brown knit suit and a corsage of white carnations.

Both young people are graduates of Granite City High School. The former Miss Law is employed in St. Louis and Mr. Grote is employed locally as a mechanic.

A reception was held immediately after the ceremony in the church fellowship hall. After a wedding trip, the newly married couple will make their home in Granite City.

EXTRA SAVINGS WITH EAGLE STAMPS

Season Opening Poor For Waterfowl Hunters

Illinois duck hunters had a poor opening day, according to George Arthur, chief waterfowl biologist for the Illinois Department of Conservation.

"The warm weather was the most prominent reason for such a poor opening day," said Arthur, "other reasons were lack of wind, the presence of fog and the fact that there is plenty of feed for the waterfowl in Illinois."

"Between our initial census and the time the season began we had very few new birds coming into the state because of continuing warm weather in the north. This also contributed to the poor day, because the late birds coming down are usually the first harvested while looking for places to feed."

About 375 hunters showed up opening morning at Rice Lake Conservation Area. 100 hunters were allowed to hunt, and they bagged 49 ducks. Of this total, 35 were teal.

Fifty ducks were taken at the Sangamon Conservation Area by 100 hunters, with 41 being wood ducks.

At the Mississippi River Fish and Waterfowl Management Project (composed of Batchtown, Stump Lake, Hurricane Island, Diamond Island and the Glades), about 1,000 hunters managed to harvest 940 ducks. Most of the ducks were woodies, however many pintails were also taken.

In the Carlyle Lake 3,500 acre sub-impoundment waterfowl area managed by the Department, 800 hunters were successful during the first day. Numerous species were flying, including pintails, mallards, wood ducks and blue and green-winged teal. However, no harvest data is available from the area.

At the Mermet Lake Conservation Area 100 birds were harvested by 50 hunters. About 90% of the birds taken were wood ducks.

Private clubs in Henderson County reported high harvests of blue and green-winged teal, with some hunters taking their limits (ten).

"Wood ducks are a local bird and they are quite numerous because they have not gone further south at this time. The teal population is still quite high in Illinois due to the unseasonably warm weather that we are having. These early migrants will stay in the area until colder weather forces them further south," Arthur reported. "The waterfowl season should begin to pick up as soon as cold weather causes the birds in the north to migrate."

Goose Census

The first goose census of the fall season was taken recently in Southern Illinois and Western Kentucky by the Department of Conservation.

from Mt. Vernon, made the count at Horseshoe Lake, Union County Wildlife Refuge, Crab Orchard Wildlife Refuge and in Ballard County, Ky., across the Ohio River.

Crab Orchard has 30,000 geese now using the area, while 24,000 birds are at Horseshoe Lake. The Union County Wildlife Refuge has drawn commendation from the U. S. Department of the Interior and many conservation agencies throughout the United States.

A complete set contains 100 slides, of which 120 are in an identification set of all the ducks, male and female, that pass through the Mississippi Flyway. The set is divided into puddle and diving ducks. The ducks are shown airborne, in the water and on land. An additional 40 slides are made into an identification quiz.

"The set represents hundreds of hours of time by George Arthur, who did all of the photography," Henry Barkhausen, director of the Department of Conservation, said.

"We are very pleased that it has been so well received," Arthur anticipated the coming of the point system to waterfowl hunting several years ago, and began making the slides as an aid to waterfowl hunting.

When waterfowl season began on Oct. 23, it was the second year that Illinois has used the point system in governing bag limits.

If first showed the slides at a Mississippi Flyway council meeting, held in Toronto a few years ago," Arthur said. "They were well received then, and now that so many other states are converting to the point system, some have asked for copies of our slides to help in their waterfowl identification courses. We even had a request from the Department of Interior for a set of the slides."

The slides are being made available to other states at cost. Any sportsmen's club or other organization can obtain a set at a minimal cost by writing to: George Arthur, Division of Wildlife Resources, Department of Conservation, 400 S. Spring St., Springfield, Ill. 62706.

Give Thanks Thursday for Freedom To Enjoy Our Bountiful Blessings

President Richard M. Nixon, recalling the triumphs and tragedies of the Pilgrim fathers, has proclaimed Nov. 25 as a national day of Thanksgiving. The text of the proclamation reads:

"One of the splendid events which shape man's destiny occurred when a small band of people, believing in the essential sanctity of their own being, went in search of a land in which their individuality might be the highest national value, before any arbitrary limitation or duty placed upon some men by the whim or design of others."

"They went in search of a land where they might use their own commitment to their own ideal of human freedom."

"In the purpose of their search, the human spirit found its ultimate definition."

"They found the land they sought, and it was a difficult land, but it was rich. With their sacrifices they brought forth its riches, and laid the foundation for a new nation."

"But more than that, they revealed a new possibility for the expression of man's spirit."

"In the sure unfolding of that possibility, man has begun to experience a world in which he may do justice, love mercy and walk humbly with his God forever."

"For what those early settlers established, we give thanks in a way which began with them."

"In their first years on the hard cold edge of man's bright golden dream, they were tried and their faith was tested, but when their bodies failed, their faith did not."

"The stark simple words on a sarcophagus in a little village on the seacoast of Massachusetts tell the story well: this monument marks the first burying-ground in Plymouth of the passengers of the Mayflower. Here, under cover of darkness, the fast dwindling company laid their dead; leveling the earth above them lest the Indians should learn how many were the graves."

"Yet, because mankind was not created merely to survive, in the face of all hardship and suffering, these men and women—and those of the other early settlements—prevailed."

"And the settlers gathered to give thanks for God's bounty, for the blessings of life itself, and for the freedom which they so cherished that no hardship could quench it."

"Now their heritage is ours. What they dared to imagine for this land came to pass."

"What they planted here prospered. And for our heritage—a land rich with the bountiful blessings of God, and the freedom to enjoy those rich blessings—we give thanks to God Almighty, to this time, and for all time."

"Now, therefore, I, Richard Nixon, President of the United States of America, in accordance with the wish of the Congress as expressed in section 6103 of Title 5 of the United States Code, do hereby proclaim Thursday, Nov. 25, 1971, as a day of national Thanksgiving."

"I call upon all Americans to give thanks this day, to give thanks in homes and in places of worship for the many blessings our people enjoy, to welcome the elderly and less fortunate as special participants in this day's festivities and observances, thereby truly showing our gratitude to God by expressing and reflecting his love."

The FORM Thanksgiving Spotlights Nation's Abundance and Public's Compassion

To the Editor: This article about Thanksgiving is so good, I want to share it with your readers —

We take good things too much for granted at this time of year as a desert when thirst burns, water is valued beyond gold.

After missing a dozen meals, a man knows of few things more important than food.

In a bitter wind, how fine it is to have warm clothing.

When winter snow swirls, how welcome is a comfortable house.

When pockets are empty, how vital money is.

When man is lonely, how cheerful friends are.

When he is ill, how wonderful health is.

When he is sad, how enlivening a merry mood and laughter.

When he has no freedom, how magnificent is liberty.

As a nation, whatever our shortcomings, we have strength and abundance; as a people, much compassion; as a symbol and a power, much to offer everyone on earth who loves liberty.

As individuals, we have opportunities, perhaps more than are to be found in any other nation, for self-realization.

In a world where freedom is often at bay, we have a maximum amount. Let us pray we have the strength and wisdom to keep it and to make it grow.

If we lost what we now may take for granted, we would realize how valuable it is.

We do have reason for thanks-giving, don't we?

see how he could be denied it if he really fought for it. Rather than openly saying he will run regardless of the slatemakers' decision, which would risk a party split, Simon is hiding his time and awaiting the early-December verdict of party leaders.

It should be a titanic battle next summer and fall. Democrats are so confident that they think even a clean sweep may be possible, including victories over U. S. Senator Charles Percy and Illinois Attorney General William Scott. Ogilvie is well aware of polls which show Simon winning in a landslide.

The governor acknowledged yesterday that the campaign ahead will be difficult. It will call for fidelity, resolution and courage. It will test our belief in what we have done, and our dedication to what we hope to do.

While one or the other of the contenders is destined for a serious setback in his political career, the prospect is not as bleak for voters. It appears they will be choosing between two highly qualified aspirants, which is a lot better than having to settle for the "least worst" of two bad candidates.

Effort to Create Airport Gaining Momentum

The effort to establish a major metropolitan airport in Illinois is continuing. And it is picking up momentum, despite the latest build-in-Missouri tactic of crying Lambert Airport can serve all the needs indefinitely.

St. Louis City Comptroller John H. Poelker said Monday that despite "the desire of every loyal and devoted Missourian, the weight of evidence is for the Columbia-Waterloo, Ill., site."

"I cannot support further delay in this decision since I can recall the cost of a lack of decision ten years ago when a joint St. Louis City-County airport planning group delayed to a point of dissolution and thereby permitted non-usable sites in western and southern St. Louis County to be absorbed by other irreversible developments."

The 46,000-member Airline Pilots Association also has spoken out the month about the hazards associated with continued use of relatively small, inadequately-equipped airports.

The association said U. S. airports are increasingly dangerous, with a diminishing safety margin in both takeoffs and landings. Asserting that the present federal ten-year plan to improve airport safety is not enough, it called for an accelerated five-year program to reduce the prospect of airport crashes.

The proposed Illinois airport is to be not only the most modern in the world but probably the safest.

There is no way of putting a precise value on human life, but it is so valuable that there ought to be a quick end to the contentions that a hemmed-in airport should be perpetuated instead of establishing the spacious, ultra-modern field which is proposed.

Breath Test May Make Streets, Roads Safer

With the solid backing of legislators from this area, the Illinois General Assembly overwhelmingly adopted a "breath test" law this fall after years of debate, which the bill regularly fell just short of adoption.

A written threat from U. S. Transportation Secretary John Volpe to withhold $40 million in highway funds from Illinois and the bill factor in the affirmative action. But the representatives and senators also recognized that street and highway crashes have been taking a tragic toll—and that drunken driving has been a leading cause.

The law provides that, beginning July 1, 1972, motorists halted for a traffic violation may be required to take a breath test to determine whether they are intoxicated; they imply consent to such testing in accepting their driving licenses. Refusal of a test brings a three-month license suspension.

The net result may be a bit of inconvenience for some party-goers—who will have to make their "last two for the road" coffee—and a much safer street and highway system, with fewer deaths and injuries.

"Wonderland" Season Returning

About a year ago when we began this column, we wrote a sort of introductory comment. We didn't publish the introduction at that time but instead just plunged in, writing about a variety of topics on a more or less regular basis.

Now that the seasons have come full circle and another winter is approaching, we'll review our thoughts at the time the series was started. Why a column title like "Winter Wonderland"? Well, most people who write a column seek a heading which is unique; one of the simplest ways of achieving this is to utilize one's name. We also gave some thought to "Bill of Fare" before reaching a decision.

Uniqueness also is achieved by some column writers by selecting a phrase which relates to an experience or attitude or situation which they deem relevant to their column or newspaper or community.

Others play it totally straight, with "Editor's Notebook" or "Editor's Desk" or something similar. So, can at the least be said that "Winter Wonderland" is a title different from that of any other column we have run across.

The words also are alliterative, which may be appreciated by devotees of Vice-President Spiro Agnew's pointed periphrastics, a pungent pejorative pros. (That read a little better a year ago, when the "Veep" was more talkative than he has been lately.)

The title of this column is a phrase sometimes used to describe the wonders of the winter season, when snow crystals add sparkle and beauty to the workaday world, creating a coating of white, a quiet mantle that enhances everything it touches, except auto traffic.

A "wonderland" image evokes thoughts of one of our favorite seasons, although the same title remains in use during the other three seasons of the year as well. (We received a lot of suggestions during 1971 that the summer and autumn headings but decided to retain "winter," even when the temperature drops 90 degrees.)

Winterland is a happy time, including as it does Christmas and family gatherings and excuses to light a cozy hearthside fire—while not having to make any excuses at all for not moving or putting about the yard.

The definition of "winter" is about what could be expected. "The season between autumn and spring, comprising in the Northern Hemisphere usually the months of December, January and February. Or, as reckoned astronomically, extending from the December solstice to the March equinox."

Perusal of Webster's Seventh Collegiate Dictionary is a bit more rewarding on the word "wonderland."

The book describes it as an "imaginary realm—a place that excites admiration or wonder." And "excites" is a word that Merriam-Webster never uses lightly.

The realm of thoughts and words is a fascinating, exciting world, and the task of communication is to put ideas and ideas is one which is continually absorbing and challenging.

Executive Vice-President,
Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois

Nothing much new happened in the field of taxation at the fall session of the Illinois General Assembly.

Personal Property Tax — Status Quo Maintained — Assembly (1) H.B. 3734, which allowed every taxpayer a reduction of $20,000 of equalized assessed valuation on his or her personal property assessment, passed the House, but wasn't called in the Senate by the sponsor when the bill was amended down to $15,000.

(2) S.B. 1292, which taxed non-producing personal property and exempted non-income-producing personal property, plus granting a $5,000 equalized assessed valuation exemption on the tax on the privilege of use, was left on the Senate calendar.

(3) S.B. 1304 through S.B. 1307, which classified personal property into five classes and phased out the tax on business on a yearly basis until no tax remained by Jan. 1, 1979, was sent to a committee to study replacement revenues needed when the personal property tax is abolished.

This latter committee is a good committee and has the problem of coming up with the best possible taxes to replace lost revenues when the tax is abolished on or before Jan. 1, 1979. It will need the help of lay persons familiar with the task.

Bills to Replace Fee Revenue to Counties Do Not Pass. H.B. 3717 and S.B. 1290 allowed counties to charge tax collection costs to units of local government for such services to replace extension and collection tax fees to be lost as of Dec. 1, 1971.

H.B. 3717 did not pass the Senate; S.B. 1290 passed the Senate but was left on the calendar.

Home Rule Units Can Still License Trades, Professions and Occupations. H.B. 3656 and H.B. 2780 through H.B. 2819 gave cities and counties exclusive licensing of professions, trades and occupations and the regulation of public utilities and financial institutions. The bills passed the House but did not pass the Senate.

Leasing Taxes Remain in House. S.B. 1244 through S.B. 1251, which would allow the state, counties and municipalities to tax on the privilege of using rented or leased personal property (state rate 4% of rental price; county and municipal rate 1%), were taken from committee in the House, amended and advanced to passage stage, but they were left on the House calendar.

Miscellaneous. H.B. 1543, which provided that all capital stock investments be made by the Department of Local Government Affairs, was tabled in the House by the sponsor.

H.B. 1573, which allowed four installment payments of real estate taxes in Cook County, was left in the Senate when that body refused to recede from its amendment after the House had previously non-concurred in the Senate amendment. No time was left for conference committee action.

H.B. 1606, which allows downstate counties to have county executive elected by the voters in order to become home rule units, passed both Houses.

88 Area Students Named State Scholars

The Illinois State Scholarship Commission today named 88 students as state scholars in the 1972-73 competitive state scholar program. High school academic records and examination scores are used in the selection.

A total of 16,200 students were selected, representing nearly every high school in the state, and were chosen from the 32,400 students who entered the competition by taking either the April 24 or July 17, 1971, examination administered by the American College Testing Program (ACT).

Monetary awards up to $1,200 for 1972-73 for use toward tuition and mandatory fees at the public or private college in Illinois of the student's choice will be conferred upon those state scholars who have financial need as evidenced by data provided by the student and his family in the monetary award application.

Certificate of Merit

In recognition of their outstanding scholastic achievement, all state scholars receive a certificate of merit.

Any student who is not named in the competitive state scholar program who also is a permanent resident or citizen of the United States, an Illinois resident, and will attend an approved college in Illinois in September 1972, may obtain a 1972-73 monetary award application from his high school counselor or by writing directly to the Illinois State Scholarship Commission, Box 697, Deerfield, Ill. 60015.

For the 1971-72 academic year, $8,000 undergraduate students are being assisted with $28,400,000 in monetary awards at the 135 Illinois public and private colleges and universities.

Dolly, Porter Blend Voices, Win Acclaim

By JUDY HUGG
Capley News Service

For years it seemed that country music was destined to stay in the barnyards and back country taverns. However, in the last decade and as the result of a few changes, it has become one of the most popular types of music played today.

The old familiar twang has been virtually eliminated by most of its superstars, thus creating a new appeal and a wider-spread audience.

Enjoying this new popularity are RCA recording artists Dolly Parton and Porter Wagoner.

ly Parton and Porter Wagoner, whose latest duo album, "The Best of Porter Wagoner and Dolly Parton," is riding high on the charts.

The platter fully demonstrates the perfect musical marriage that exists between the two on such songs as "Daddy Was An Old Time Preacher Man," "The Last Thing on My Mind" and "We'll Get Ahead Someday."

The natural blending of their voices has gone over so well that they've already, in a relatively short period of time, won many honors including the Music Association's award as No. 1 vocal duo for 1970.

The two first met when Wagoner discovered Dolly back in 1967. At the time Dolly was somewhat of an unknown even though she had been singing since her childhood days in Locust Ridge, Tenn. On the other hand, the tall, lanky Wagoner had already established himself as a well-known single artist, with no intentions of forming a duo.

New Meaning to Life

But enter Dolly, and his life took on a new meaning. "There was such a good blend and everything," he said. "I found out she thought like I did about what makes a good song and how good songs should be sung. To Dolly and me, songs say the same thing, meaning we think alike and can put the same emotion into each song."

Our getting together seemed a natural thing," added Dolly. "We can just glance at each other and know how we're going to sing a song."

This meeting of the minds has proven to be the key to their success, but they have many other things going for them. For one thing, they make a stunning pair on stage, with the petite blonde Dolly standing only 5 feet 1 and Porter ranging in the 6-foot category. Their delivery whether it be alone or as a duo, has a clarity and harmony that is hard to find in popular music these days.

Dolly and Porter have also solved the problem of every singer today, the finding of enough good material to keep them going. They are both writing and turning out another "Best Of" album, which will be Volume II.

A prolific songwriter, Dolly received much of her guidance and inspiration from her uncle, Bill Owens, the well-known and accomplished songwriter. In fact, one of the duo's most successful tunes, "Old Time Preacher Man," was written many years ago by Dolly and her aunt, Dorothy Jo Hope.

Duet Inspired

Miss Parton's success with "Jeannie's Afraid of the Dark," an intense story of parental love, and "Run That By Me One More Time," a "funny fight" song, has inspired the duo to include in every album one of each type, for balance.

After 18 years, Porter, not letting himself be outdone by his female partner, has taken up writing again. And it seems that a dam has burst within him because the material is just pouring out.

Besides the union of their voices and the originality of their lyrics, the dynamic duo work like scientists to produce different sounds to their albums.

For example, they used the electric bass, which gave them a unique sound. They also dabbled with the brass instruments and came up with another distinctive sound. These effects plus their phrasing technique and rhythm patterns have made them a duo that will live long in the minds and ears of every country music buff.

All About Albums

Speaking of duets, A&M has released a debut album by Mimi Farrow and Tom Jans entitled "Take Heart." The platter contains cuts that tell of helplessness, sorrow and the joy of living. Done in a folk style, it comes off as a very enjoyable platter and one that gets better with use.

Remember Jefferson Airplane's "White Rabbit" fame? Well, they're back, this time on their own label (Grunt) with an album simply called "Bark," and it has all the earmarks of gold on it. Everybody has a hand in its making and tunes like "Law Man," "Thank," and "When The Earth Moves Again" have that old familiar spark to them.

Wake up, fans. Columbia is offering a fantastic set of three LPs by various artists titled "The First Great Rock Festival of the Seventies: Isle of Wight Atlantic Pop Festival." The platter features cuts from some of today's most successful groups including the Allman Brothers, Procol Harum, Poco, Ten Years After, Jimi Hendrix and many others. With such a host of great performers this set can't miss.

However, the SIU Board of Trustees has authorized the administration to seek approval from the BBE for granting of a bachelor of science degree in education with concentration in early childhood education. The existing two-year program in child care services would be phased into the proposed bachelor degree program.

Phasing out of associate degree programs is consistent with the master plan for higher education developed by the Illinois Board of Higher Education. This plan calls for SIU-SW to emphasize undergraduate programs at the junior and senior level and graduate programs.

Only two associate degree programs are offered now at SIU-SW. No new students are being accepted in the associate in business program. A two-year program leading to the associate of art in child care service is also offered.

Artificial turf is estimated at $220,000 and a new elevator-elevator communications center is budgeted for $275,000.

The feasibility of relocating the existing stadium running track is to be worked out in final plans, according to the board's action. The $150,000 item could be diverted instead to improvement of grandstand dressing rooms.

Other proposed improvements are lighting refinements, a new public address system and new scoreboard.

Robert Layer, SIU president, said the present site — at the edge of the "old" central campus — is within walking distances of most student living areas and large parking lots at the SIU Arena.

The renovation project has been endorsed by the University Senate as a "sensible alternative" to a costlier new stadium which would involve construction of additional parking areas and traffic access roads.

Biggest item in the preliminary budget is $645,000 for seating. The main brick and concrete grandstand would be extended upward 20 rows for a total of 7,200 seats. Existing wood benches would be covered with plastic and backed.

Steel-supported stands now on the east side of the field would be cut in half, repositioned in the end zones and fleshed out with 12 more rows at each end for a total of about 5,970 seats.

Replacing the east side bleachers would be a new pre-fabricated concrete-on-steel stand with 10,500 plastic seats in various colors.

NEW LOOK FOR OLD STADIUM. Architect's model shows how 33-year-old McAndrew Stadium on the campus of Southern Illinois University at Carbondale may look after $1.8 million renovation project. Permanent seating could be boosted from 8,400 to 23,670 according to estimates. Existing west grandstand, left, would be extended upward 20 rows, topped by new communications center. Field would be carpeted with artificial turf. Decision on relocating track (not shown) will be made in final planning.

SIU-SW to Drop Associate Degrees When Feasible

Associate degree programs now offered by Southern Illinois University-Southwestern will be phased out as local community colleges become able to grant the degrees.

Dr. John S. Rendleman, university president, has approved a policy recommendation from the University Senate favoring the phase-out.

The university will cooperate with and assist local community colleges in the development of their associate degree programs to the extent that resources are available for that purpose, the policy statement says.

COUNTDOWN FOR COMFORT

6' of insulation in attic or top floor ceiling (R-19 insulation)

4' of insulation in outside walls (R-11 insulation)

2' of insulation for floors over vented crawl space or unheated basement (R-13 insulation)

The right amount of insulation is one of the smartest investments you'll ever make in your home. Here, for example, are some of the "dividends" you'll get...

- ... lower heating costs. Studies show that the generally recommended insulation standard of 6-4-2 can reduce fuel bills up to 40% in winter.
- ... lower air conditioning costs. Insulation keeps your home up to 15% cooler in summer.
- ... greater comfort. 6-4-2 insulation eliminates the chill drafts caused by cold outside walls in winter. In summer you're more comfortable because your air conditioning isn't fighting the intense heat build-up in the attic.
- ... less noise pollution. 6-4-2 insulation shuts out irritating outside noise and provides sound control between rooms within the house.

What to do. A reputable contractor can quickly estimate your insulation needs and do the job with minimum inconvenience to your family. Or your building supply dealer will provide instructions and materials for a do-it-yourself job. Either way, 6-4-2 insulation will pay for itself in fuel savings and year round comfort.

Three Venice High School senior girls are anxiously waiting to hear the results of the voting completed today by the yearbook purchasers to elect Miss Venetian of 1972.

The girls will be left in suspense for 21 more days until the crowning of Miss Venetian, which will take place Dec. 15 in a Christmas pageant given by the yearbook staff.

Departing from past years, the staff will present its first daytime coronation program at 1 p.m. for the entire high school and grade school student body. Parents will be welcome.

The retiring 1971 Miss Venetian is Miss Pamela Irby, 526 Washington Ave.

The candidates are Annie Ruth Mosby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Mosby, 215a Terry St.; Helen Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Smith, 906 Third St.; and Elizabeth Glover, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Glover, 212 Hill St.

Miss Mosby is active in Chorus, F.H.A. and G.A.A., she has been a cheerleader for three years, a member of the junior play cast, and an office helper. Miss Young is active in Pep Club and has been an office and guidance helper in past years.

State Scholars Announced
Word has just been received from the Illinois State Scholarship Commission that some Venice High School seniors have been named as State Scholars in the 1972-73 competitive State Scholar Program.

Students receiving this honor are Kim Boelling, daughter of Forest Boelling, 618 Broadway, and Mrs. Delores Milkoski, 1238 Oriole St.; Linda Durer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Durer Jr., 601 Jefferson Ave.; Joan McGarrahan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William McGarrahan, 1228 Oriole St.; and Bill Schodroski, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Schodroski, 619 Lincoln Ave.

Representing nearly every high school in the state, 16,200 State Scholars were named from the 52,400 students who entered the competition by taking the examination administered by the American College Testing Program (ACT). In addition to the ACT scores, high school academic records are used in the selection of the honorees.

Painter Gainsborough Went to Work at 13

Editor's Note: Thomas Gainsborough 1727-1788, was an English painter and portraitist of great renown. His best-known work, Blue Boy, is the most popular picture in English art. This is one of a series of what famous people were like in their teens.

By BETT ANDERSON
Copy News Service
Tom Gainsborough took it easy at school and learned almost nothing. He spent all of his time drawing pictures for his classmates. They paid for the pictures by doing all of his homework for him. At home, Tom left his chores to his brothers and he wandered around, painting local scenes and people.

His parents decided he might as well quit school and study art. So they apprenticed him to a silversmith in faraway London.

When only 13, Tom traveled to London all by himself. He went by foot, passenger wagon and stagecoach. He finally arrived in London which was like a 10-ring circus. It was wild and filthy and noisy. Londoners were superficial, pleasure seeking and cruel. Hundreds would gather to watch a public execution. Caged bulls on street corners were baited by dogs. It was considered sophisticated to visit local insane asylums to hear the inmates scream.

Tom stayed with the silversmith only a few years before he went to work for an engraver. He was so efficient that he was soon hired by art dealers to restore old paintings. He was a likeable teenager as well as a talented one. Once he arrived in London, he earned his own living.

Tom Gainsborough was soon a dyed-in-the-wool Londoner. By the time he was 17, he knew his way around the pubs and taverns. But neither wine nor women kept his mind off his work. He turned out only first-rate paintings.

Tom made many visits back to his home town of Salisbury. Like Andrew Wyeth, Gainsborough believed in painting the scenes he knew best. He knew the local flora and fauna by heart.

It was while he was on one of these painting jaunts near home that he met a beautiful teenager named Margaret Burr. They went steady for a while and then married. He was 19 and she was 18. Margaret's generous dowry allowed Tom to paint without worrying about money. He became one of England's most brilliant portrait painters. He also created magnificent landscapes and other such memorable works of art as the blue boy, known and popular Blue Boy.

YOU CAN DEPEND ON THE DODGE BOYS.

REMEMBER WHEN CAR DEALERS LIKED TO TALK ABOUT ECONOMY?

(WE DODGE BOYS STILL DO.)

We'd like to point out that, in America's big-car field, we still offer you an economical 318-cubic-inch V8. It's standard equipment on our new '72 Dodge Polara. Meanwhile, our competition offers much larger V8s, standard—up around 350 cubic inches. The Dodge 318 V8 has a long and trusted heritage for brisk performance plus satisfying mileage economy. And it uses regular gas.

Of course, if you want a larger Dodge V8, you have the choice of one of our 360-, 400-, or 440-cubic-inch engines (optional, at extra cost). A Dodge test drive will help you decide.

Check out the newly restyled '72 Polara, today. Come in, we'll talk "economy" in lots of interesting ways.

Flemming Pushing Ahead In Conference on Aging

By EDWARD NEILAN
Copy News Service

Washington — Arthur S. Flemming, a chairman of the White House Conference on Aging, said today that he may have a tiger by the tail. When he accepted chairmanship of the conference, which will begin Sunday, in the nation's capital, it was widely predicted that his new activities would override his intentions to run the controversial meeting more or less along administrative guidelines.

But Flemming, who at 66 barely fits most definitions of "senior citizen," has been working quietly to make the conference one that will address the issues calmly rather than emotionally.

He has taken a giant step to allay fears of a "poken" Schenck, who was close to advocating a boycott of the November gathering which is expected to attract 3,700 delegates from all over the country.

His first move was to put into action some of the recommendations coming from local and state conferences in advance of the Washington national meeting.

Flemming said he feels that if delegates can see progress resulting from the early conferences, they will have a different psychological approach to the main conference.

"Even if they are in complete disagreement with it, people will talk about what is happening already," said Flemming. He cited President Nixon's recent speeches in Chicago and New Hampshire, which called for a cutoff of funds at standard nursing homes, as one example of preconference action.

Despite the fact that only 5 per cent of Americans over the age of 65 are in long-term care facilities, concern about nursing homes was expressed loudly at the preconference regional forums.

Flemming has promised speedy publication and distribution of recommendations that come out of the November conference.

He also assures the elderly that he will report promptly on the implementation of the recommendations. Washington insiders consider Flemming to have the full confidence of President Nixon.

Flemming's intention is to impress on the elderly that big government can work in meeting the needs of the aged.

The political implications of the November conference have not escaped either Republicans or Democrats. If Flemming can guide the conference to a satisfactory conclusion, it will be a feather in the Republicans' cap.

Majority Votes Republican
Statistics on past elections show that citizens over 65 vote in greater numbers, for example, than young people. And when they vote, the majority votes Republican.

If the conference is a flop, on the other hand, the Democrats might benefit in next year's voting.

Flemming's background provides a strong base for his self-appointed role as a spokesman for big government's expertise in helping the elderly.

He joined the government service when it was much smaller and has watched it grow.

After a brief fling as a Washington journalist, he was appointed a member of the Civil Service Commission in 1939 at the age of 34 and served that body for nine years.

During the administration of President Dwight D. Eisenhower, Flemming was director of defense mobilization and was responsible for all non-military aspects of defense.

He was a member of the Presidential Advisory Commission on Government Organization, whose report led to the creation of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare (HEW). Flemming was Mr. Eisenhower's last HEW secretary (1958-61).

Experience in education matches Flemming's record in government service. He was president of his alma mater, Ohio Wesleyan University (1948-55 and 1957-58) and held the same position at the University of Oregon (1961-68) and Macalester College in St. Paul, Minn. (1968-August, 1971).

Has 44 Degrees
Flemming has 44 honorary degrees, more than any other man in the history of the federal government except for Herbert Hoover.

Aides describe Flemming as a hard worker. "He doesn't go in for sports such as golf," said Bertha Adkins, assistant chairman of the aging conference. "He doesn't seem to need the usual forms of relaxation."

Although he has been absent from government work for 10 years, he says the inflated size of the bureaucracy doesn't bother him.

"The thing I try to keep in front of me all the time is, 'What can help to elevate the status of the elderly in society?'"

Seminar Geared to Ambulance Drivers

"Every day ambulance drivers shoulder the life and death responsibility of getting somebody to the hospital's emergency room quickly and safely. Knowing and practicing correct emergency care and transportation technique in stress circumstances is vital to everyone involved: patient, driver and certainly emergency room personnel," according to Dr. Overt M. Lay, physician-surgeon on the staff of St. Elizabeth Hospital.

"This is why we're piloting a seminar geared to 'Emergency Care and Transportation of the Sick and Injured' and inviting the hospital service area ambulance drivers, members of the police and fire departments and other carriers to participate," the physician said.

The all-day, no-charge seminar will be held Saturday, Dec. 4, in the Wiesman Room of St. Elizabeth Hospital, from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m.

Staff physicians, therapists and a legal counselor will make up a panel. Topics on the agenda will include respiratory, cardiac, psychiatric and general medical emergencies, inhalation therapy, fractures and dislocations, emergency childbirth, eye injuries and legal aspects.

Noting again that no fee will be charged participants, Dr. Lay advised that pre-registration is required. Interested ambulance drivers, carriers and members of police and fire services are asked to register by calling the hospital at 876-2000.

Lady of Snows Lighting Display to Open Friday

Hiring of Fireman Held Up by Council

Action on a recommendation for appointment of a new member of the Granite City Fire Department was held up by city council members Monday night after protests that the man recommended for employment was farther down a list of eligible candidates than another man seeking the job.

Alderman Emerald Dawes asked that an explanation be obtained from the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners as to how selections are made for recommendations to the council for employment of police and firemen.

Dawes said the board "went around" an applicant who was seventh on the eligibility list to recommend the man whose name was submitted to the council Monday night. That man was 12th on the list, Dawes said.

Alderman Steve Basarich also called for an explanation of the method used in selecting applicants. The council agreed to withhold employment of a fireman until such information can be obtained on a motion by Alderman Paul Schuler.

Most Rev. Albert R. Zurowskie, D.D., Bishop of Belleville, will light the award-winning Christmas lighting display and bless the new Infant Jesus in a special ceremony at the Shrine of Our Lady of the Snows at 5:30 p.m. Friday. The display will be open to the public each evening from 5 to 10 p.m. through Jan. 5.

A beautiful nativity scene will be located in a natural hillside setting about one-half mile from the entrance to the Shrine. Life-size figures made of white fiberglass will be spotlighted and will make the crib scene more realistic. At the center of the crib will be a statue of the Infant Jesus carved out of olive wood. This statue was hand-carved of native olive-wood in Bethlehem, by one of the local craftsmen. After it was placed on the traditional spot of the original crib in Bethlehem, it was flown to the Shrine. Bishop Zurowskie will bless the Infant Jesus statue in a special ceremony.

Featured again will be the Christmas "Way of Lights"—extended this year from one half mile to a full mile stretch of curved roads with bushes and trees on both sides illuminated by more than 100,000 dancing miniature lights.

The "Way of Lights" will guide the visitors from the Shrine entrance past the crib to the visitors Center, where they may park their automobile to get a closer view of the Nativity setting, listen to the Christmas Music and hear the Christmas message.

Spotlighted displays of the angel of Bethlehem, the three wise men, and the shepherds with their sheep are placed prominently along the approach to the crib scene.

The "Way of Lights" and Christmas scenes is sponsored by the Laymen's Foundation of the Shrine of Our Lady of the Snows with the hope of bringing the message of the Birth of Christ, and its real meaning to thousands of men, women and children. Last year more than 265,000 persons viewed this unique Christmas display. The Shrine is located on Highway 460 between Belleville and East St. Louis, Ill.
